

Global Reward Solutions adds flights to its industry leading Vacations & Travel rewards offering.

NEWS RELEASE: August 17, 2015. Global Reward Solutions, the world's leading cloud-based reward management platform for loyalty and recognition programs, has added airline flights to its comprehensive Vacations & Travel rewards offering. Reward program members can now search for flights against the world's largest selection of airlines and immediately book online for their choice of thousands of destinations worldwide.

"By adding flights to our extensive Vacations & Travel offering, members now have a one-stop shop to plan their perfect vacation anywhere in the world," says Rob Purdy, Founder and CEO, Global Reward Solutions. "Travel continues to one of the most motivating and desirable reward options."

The Global Reward Solutions Vacations & Travel offering provides the world's largest selection of local and international airlines, a global array of hotels and accommodations, cruises, car rentals, activities and excursions, global tours, and experiences. Members can also take advantage of daily and weekly "Specials" that include discount pricing on selected flights, along with deals on featured vacations, cruises, worldwide tours, and hotels.

Through Global Reward Solutions, hundreds of thousands of weekly resort destinations are offered to members at 40% off regular weekly rates. Plus, if members don't have enough reward points for a flight, they can simply top up their points with a credit card to cover the cost of their flight.
